IN MEMORIAM OF ALBERT S. POST.

Special Services at the Congregational Sunday School.

His Character Eulogized by Mrs. Warren F. Day, F. M. Sapp and W. L. Hardy—Memorial Resolutions Adopted—The Churches on Sunday.

At the Congregational church the pastor gave a resume of the seven years' pastorate which he has so successfully conducted in Ottawa. The value of faithfulness and its result was made the foundation of a most interesting sermon.

The Sunday school met at noon and held memorial exercises in remembrance of the late A. S. Post. The program was as follows:

Singing by the school.
Scripture reading.
Prayer.

Solo—Mr. Hardy.
Select Reading—Miss Alice DeLagrange.

Solo—Mrs. C. C. Warner.
Memorial.

"Our Brother as a Sunday School Worker"—F. M. Sapp.
"His Thought and Labor for Young People"—W. Z. Hardy.

"As a Christian"—Mrs. W. F. Day.
Singing by the school.

Other testimonials were offered by Rev. Day, C. B. Chapman, T. E. MacKinlay and H. M. Hamilton.

The memorial adopted by the school was as follows:

"Our beloved brother and superintendent, Albert S. Post, has been called by our Heavenly Father to the higher life."

"And we, officers, teachers and pupils of the Congregational Sunday school, mourn his loss and are sad in the thought that we shall not again hear his voice in admonition and prayer."

"We shall ever remember that our brother lived very near to the Savior, whom he so sincerely trusted and loved."

"This love and trust were manifested in a life of earnest Christian endeavor, inasmuch that it was always known where to find our brother by considering where a faithful disciple of the Master should be found. Zealous, earnest in his Christian work, he was never obtrusive or ostentatious."

"He, in truth, worshipped the Lord in the beauty of holiness."

"The young people of this school remember with gratitude how he labored to lead them to the Savior, and to teach them the blessedness of the Christian life."

"And now, by his newly made grave, and as the best and only return for his love and work for them, they renew their devotion and their vows to the dear Lord and Father of us all."

"To the relatives and friends of our brother in their bereavement, we extend Christian sympathy, and commend them to Him whose favor is life and whose loving kindness is better than life."

There was an evening communion service at 6 p. m., and at 7:30 p. m. the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor also adopted resolutions on the death of Mr. Post.

SAYS SHE WASN'T THERE.

Weeping Minnie Winterling in Court—O'Brien First.

With the plea entered by Minnie Winterling Monday, Mrs. Kate Ford is the only remaining defendant in the Moore murder case who has not been allowed to plead to the indictment.

Minnie appeared in court at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, accompanied by her attorney, Jesse Ruger. She wept bitterly all the while and frequently gave vent to loud moanings.

The court asked her to plead, guilty or not guilty. To this she quickly replied, "Guilty! Guilty!"

To query as to whether she understood what a plea was, she replied by saying, "I wasn't near Allen Park on that night and never learned of the murder until next morning."

Judge Blanchard then entered a plea of not guilty.

Mr. Ruger asked that Minnie be put in a separate cell away from the Ford woman. At this point the prisoner again began to weep and exclaimed: "I won't stay with Mrs. Ford any longer; she got me into all this trouble."

The court said he would look into the matter and after Mr. Moloney had stated that the case against O'Brien would be tried first, court was then adjourned until August 11th.

A Faithful Officer.

City Attorney John F. Madden, by his persistent and determined endeavor, has brought about a decided reform in the conduct of police court cases. During his term of office he has paid strict attention to each and every police court case as it came before the magistrate, and has, in every instance, seen that the merits of the case were fully and completely developed. No guilty man, whom he has been called upon to prosecute, has been allowed to escape unpunished if any effort of his was able to cause punishment to be inflicted. His administration of the office is not only a credit to himself but also to the city of Ottawa, and to a high degree has he merited the confidence and respect of the people.

Ayer's Ague Cure never fails to neutralize the poisons of malaria, and eradicate them from the system. This preparation is purely vegetable, contains no harmful ingredients, and, if taken according to directions, is warranted to cure fever and ague. Try it.

The Earlville Leader, having lost the job of publishing the supervisor proceedings for nothing and recouping itself by getting them up "thirty days after date" in pamphlet form, grows because the board, of whom whom it spoke so gently as the sweet supervisors, but whom it now calls the "county barons," decided this time to publish their proceedings in the two leading county papers—to wit, the FREE TRADER and Republican—and faults said papers for doing it for so small a pittance as $25 each. Well, it was little enough; yet it was worth something to be officially recognized and advertised as the "leading papers in the county." A big puff like that from the La Salle county legislature is not to be sneezed at!

IN HONOR OF MR. STEWARD.

A Pleasant Democratic Gathering at Judge Weeks' Tuesday Evening.

There was a pleasant gathering last evening of a dozen or so of Ottawa Democrats at the home of Judge V. B. Weeks, on Norris street, invited there to meet, in a social way, the Hon. Lew Steward, Democratic candidate for congress in this district, who, accompanied by Mrs. Steward, and his son-in-law, Mr. Henning, of Plano, are on a visit to the Judge. A very tasteful and sumptuous repast was spread, to which sat down, besides the visiting friends named, Col. D. Hapeman, L. W. Brewer, J. R. Shaver, Mayor Sherwood, Wm. Cogswell, John F. Reed, Wm. Osman and Thos. McKinley.

After justice had been done to the liberal repast and the cloth removed, a little pleasant free talk was indulged in. The Hon. Lew Steward of course was the first to be heard. He expressed the unwillingness with which he had accepted the nomination for congress and entered upon this campaign, but being in it, he would see it out and do the best that lay in him to win, not that he cared about the honors and emoluments involved, but for the sake of the cause. He was not a politician, but as to the great issues involved in the present contest—the tariff, the force bill, currency, the restriction of corporations and monopolies, his heart and soul were with the Democratic party and if elected should try to reflect and act out their views. Short speeches were also made by Mayor Sherwood, Mr. Reed, Mr. Osman, Mr. MacKinlay, Mr. Shaver and Mr. Brewer, all in the pleasant strain, often abounding in witty sallies, but while covering a wide range of topics, all agreeing on the one point, that an earnest, honest, united effort must be made for the good cause this fall, and with no less faith than a profound determination to win.

The party broke up about midnight, with many grateful expressions to the kind host and hostess, Judge Weeks and his lady, for so hearty and sumptuous an entertainment, but also with the warmest handshaking to Mr. Steward, and expressions of renewed confidence in fitness and ability to lead the Democracy of this district to victory this fall and their determination to leave no stone unturned to do him in the noble work.
